Graduation Reviewing Officer

Col. William P. Leek

Reviewing today’s graduation is Col. William P. Leek, commanding officer for 6th Marine Corps District. Leek, an infantry officer, was born in Pittsburgh and graduated from the University of Delaware in 1977. He enlisted in the Marines Corps in September 1978 and attended recruit training aboard the Depot. Upon graduation, he was assigned to Military Police Company, H&SBn., Camp Lejeune, N.C., until January 1981, when he attended Officer Candidate School in Quantico, Va.

After The Basic School and the Infantry Officer Course, he was ordered to the 1st Marine Division as a platoon commander and executive officer of Fox Company. He also served as the Company Commander of Headquarters and Service Company, 2nd Bn., 1st Marines.

In May 1984 he was assigned to Recruiting Station Pittsburgh, 4th Marine Corps District, where he served as both the operations officer and executive officer.

In December 1987, Leek assumed command of the Marine Detachment aboard the USS Theodore Roosevelt, CVN-71.

In December 1989, he was transferred to Fort Benning, Ga., to attend the Infantry Officer Advanced Course, where he earned a place on the Commandant’s list. After school, he was ordered to the 3rd Bn., 6th Marines, 2nd Marine Division. Leek participated in operations Desert Shield/Storm where he served as the battalion S-4 officer. Afterwards he deployed to Okinawa serving as Kilo Company Commander.

Arriving at MCRD San Diego in August 1992, he held the billets of Quality Control and Operations Officer, AC/S Recruiting, Western Recruiting Region, Company Commander of Headquarters Company, and Executive Officer of Headquarters and Service Battalion.

In July 1995, he assumed command of Recruiting Station Los Angeles, 12th Marine Corps District. From January 1999 to July 1999, Leek was assigned as the Force Protection Officer, Combined Task Force, Operation Northern Watch, Incirlik Air Base Turkey.

In August 1999, Leek assumed command of Marine Combat Training Battalion, School of Infantry, Camp Geiger, N.C., In July 2001, he was selected to attend the Naval War College, Newport, R.I., where he earned a Masters of Arts degree in National Security and Strategic Studies. He then reported to the 3rd Marine Division in July 2002, was assigned as Assistant Chief of Staff, G-3, and subsequently as the J-3 for JTF 555 Operation Enduring Freedom-Philippines.

In August 2003, Leek assumed command of the 6th Marine Corps Recruiting District.

His decorations include the Meritorious Service Medal with two gold stars in lieu of third award, the Joint Service Commendation Medal, the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medal with two gold stars in lieu of third award, the Navy and Marines Corps Achievement Medal, the Combat Action Ribbon.

Colonel Leek is married and has two children.
